Parent Spotlights

Cammie Woodward is the mom of Mason in Den 4, who has been in Cub Scouts since his Tiger year. Her older son Zachary is their Den Chief. She is our current Cubmaster and her husband Bill is the Assistant Cubmaster, so they have many opportunities for family scouting activities. She works as a Child Life Specialist at Kaiser Roseville, specializing in pediatric oncology patients. She loves photography and outdoor activities, so scouting is the perfect fit!

Scout Law of the Month

Talk about what the scout law means with your child.

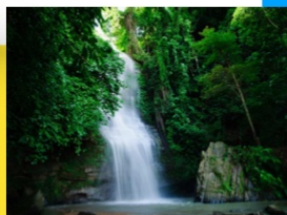

Friendly

To be friendly means to be inclusive and not tease. It means to welcome others to be a part of your group and to stick up for those that get picked on. It also means to have good manners and to shake hands when meeting new people.

Thrifty

To be thrifty means to not be wasteful, using one's resources wisely, including natural resources, like water. It means to be creative when you have limited resources and to make things from what you already have rather than buying something new. Being thrifty also means to budget wisely so you don't waste money.

Gary Slossberg is the dad of Charlie in Den 6 (Bears). Originally from the east coast (a big Florida Gators and Miami Heat fan), he's lived in California since 2003, moving to Folsom in 2012. He's the current Pack Committee Chair and is an attorney for the state working on child support issues. A 9-year sleepaway camp veteran, Gary's favorite scouting activity is the Family Campout.
